EMPIRE WORLD POLICY TAKING SHAPE

Strike Settlement In Britain Object Of Meeting Monday

Representatives of Striking Coal Miners and Mine Owners Will Confer With Prime Minister In Effort to End Trouble.

London, June 25.—Both the striking coal miners and the coal mine owners have accepted an invitation extended to-day by Premier Lloyd George to confer with him at the Board of Trade Monday with the view of endeavoring to reach a settlement of the coal strike, which has been in progress almost three months.

London, June 25.—The request of the striking coal miners' representatives for a meeting with the Government and the coal mine owners decided upon last night with the object of obtaining a settlement of the coal strike brought a quick response from Premier Lloyd George. This morning he invited the owners and striking miners to a joint conference on Monday.

The newspapers generally in their articles to-day are optimistic over the possibility of an immediate settlement of the long strike, which now has been in progress nearly three months.

No Support.
The decision to attempt a reopening of negotiations between both sides was reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the miners' union last night. This step was influenced, it was declared, by the failure of the miners to secure financial support from other trades unions and the reluctance of other labor organizations to join with the striking miners for industrial action to enforce their mutual demands. The hope was expressed that the Government would renew its offer to grant a £10,000,000 subsidy to the coal industry as an aid to the settlement.

From States.
New York, June 25.—(Canadian Press).—There have been 500,000 tons of United States coal contracted for in this country this week to be shipped to United Kingdom ports according to the New York world. To carry it seventy-five vessels have been chartered. The orders were given as a result of the coal strike on the other side not being settled. A quantity of coal for use by British ships has been obtained in France, but it was coal turned over by Germany and of very poor quality.

PAPERS DEAL WITH JAPANESE PACT

Renewal Opposed by Writers in London

London, June 25.—The Empire conference and the question of Great Britain's relations with the United States and Japan are the subject of lengthy articles in the weekly reviews. They discuss the Anglo-Japanese alliance from every possible angle.

The Spectator maintains its attitude against renewal of the treaty, arguing that the British Empire Prime Ministers should acquiesce in its renewal, it will only be of deference to the views of the British Government, while the people of the Dominions will be slow to recognize the necessity of renewal. It believes there is nothing hostile to Japan in allowing the treaty to lapse.

Not Worth While.
"Maintenance of the alliance, which is admittedly only a matter of international courtesy," adds The Spectator, "is not worth while if it deprives us of United States sympathy and comes to be regarded by the Dominions as a weighty obligation they are compelled to assume out of love and respect for the Mother Country."

Doubts.
Fear that the British Cabinet has decided in favor of renewing the alliance and that Premier Lloyd George and Canada and Premier Smuts of South Africa will not be strong enough to influence that decision is expressed by The Nation. It argues that with whatever restrictions the new treaty may be hedged, the alliance must mean that for some purposes and some contingencies, the British and Japanese fleets are to be counted together. The Nation denounces Japan's rule as having been everywhere, and especially in Korea and Siberia, "beyond all western precedent ruthless and bloody." It says that wherever, but especially in Manchuria, Japan has found expedients for circumventing nominal equality in trading rights, "noting that all this has gone on under shelter of the alliance, the paper declares renewal would mean 'our further tolerance of this detestable process.'"

"Let the alliance be transformed and expanded to a triple Pacific agreement to include the United States," The Nation concludes.

CROP OUTLOOK IN U. S. EXCELLENT

New York, June 25.—(Canadian Press).—The general crop outlook throughout the United States is excellent, according to reports published here to-day. Northwestern crops are reported to be in need of rain, but the outlook is generally optimistic.

WIFE GARNISHEES HUSBAND; JUDGE THINKS IT OVER

London, Ont., June 25.—For a wife to garnish her husband's wages is an unusual thing, but such was the experience of Edwin D. Schaefer, a clerk in the Grand Trunk Railway yards here. The case was heard in court yesterday, and although in his remarks Judge Judd, who presided, intimated that the garnishee was not in order, he reserved decision. The garnishee was for non-support.

ASSETS OF BANKS SHOW INCREASE

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press).—An increase of over $30,000,000 in assets and of approximately $11,000,000 in liabilities of Canadian banks last month, as compared with the previous month of April, is shown by the bank statement for May issued from the Finance Department to-day.

During May there was a decrease of approximately $10,000,000 in the total current loans in Canada and an increase of $2,600,000 in the amount of call loans outstanding.

SAMUEL GOMPERS IS RE-ELECTED

Again Chosen Head of Labor Federation

Denver, Col., June 25.—Samuel Gompers, veteran American labor leader, to-day was re-elected to the presidency of the American Federation of Labor, succeeding John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers. The vote was: Gompers, 23,022; Lewis, 12,324.

Details.
Only two of the largest organizations cast a vote. The Lewis and Clark Union and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. The miners' delegation split their vote, giving Gompers 1,584 and Lewis 2,122. President Lewis declining to vote the 532 votes he held.

The railroad organizations, which had been claimed almost solid by Lewis supporters, split their votes, the two largest unions, the electrical workers and the railway car men, casting their entire vote for Gompers.

Cheers.
The announcement of Gompers' re-election was greeted by cheers and applause which lasted for several minutes. The demonstration, however, failed to sweep the convention floor, as scores of delegates remained silent.

Business Block In City and Uplands Homes Planned

New building operations, the total value of which is estimated at approximately $100,000, are being started in Victoria. A new business block is to be built in the busy section of Yates Street. Tenders for this building are being called now and the contract will be let within the next few days.

Another feature of the building situation is to be found in the residential section of Uplands, where several large residences will shortly be built.

Tenders Being Called.
Architect C. Elwood Watkins has prepared plans for a brick block to be erected on a corner of the north side of Yates Street, between Douglas and Blanshard, and is now calling for tenders for the construction of this building. The contract will be let early next week. It will be a one-storey structure, will have a pressed brick front and will be equipped with modern features.

The block will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. Tenders are also being invited by Architect Watkins from selected contractors for the erection of a modern bungalow of nine rooms and garage to cost $10,000, on Moss Street.

Several large homes are about to be erected in the Uplands ranging between $5,000 and $10,000 each. Architect R. S. Spurgeon announced the award of a contract to W. M. Sutton for the erection of a modern stucco home on Lansdowne Avenue, Uplands, for A. McVie. Work on this residence has been commenced by the contractor.

William K. McCarter, of the McCarter Shingle Co., plans to build a home in the Uplands district. J. C. McKeith is the architect. Another residence is contemplated in Uplands for R. J. Jameson, of the firm of Jameson & Willis.

DRURY LOOKING TOWARD OTTAWA

Ontario Premier May Be Commons Candidate

Toronto, June 25.—A special dispatch to The Globe from Milton, Ontario, says:
"It is rumored in Milton that Premier Drury will enter the arena of Federal politics and run as a candidate for the House of Commons in this county at the next general election. Halton farmers have followed the advice of the Premier and will call themselves the People's Progressive Party."

If he should run for the Federal seat there would be a three-cornered contest with Dr. Anderson, the present government member, as one candidate and probably a Liberal as another.

Dr. Anderson stated yesterday that Premier Meighen had accepted an invitation to speak here in August. Preparations are being made for a big reception for him.

G. T. R. HEARINGS NEARING AN END

Arguments by Government and Company Counsel

Montreal, June 25.—After sixty-three days of hearings, the taking of evidence in the Grand Trunk Railway arbitration came to a conclusion yesterday afternoon and the Board adjourned until Monday. It is possible, however, that counsel for the Grand Trunk may ask an opportunity to bring some further evidence in rebuttal of that adduced by the Government counsel.

The Board is anxious to hear arguments without delay, but it was reported to-day that counsel would ask for time to study them and many pages of evidence and 500 exhibits.

HOSPITAL BONDS SOLD

The debentures issued by the city on the authority of the by-law approved in 1912 in connection with the new Jubilee Hospital project are to be taken by the Workmen's Compensation Board, the tender submitted by the hospital authorities having been the most favorable of those offered to the Board in response to its invitation for competitive bids issued through the press. The rate at which the debentures will be disposed of will work out at 7 per cent, which, in view of the condition of the market and the fact that Provincial issues yield as high as 8 1/2 per cent, is regarded by the tenderers as quite satisfactory.

POLICE RAISE GOES TO HON. MR. FARRIS

Attorney-General Now Preparing Memo on Civic Trouble

The trouble between the Police Commissioners plan to increase all police salaries by $15 a month and which was appealed to Premier Oliver and members of the Cabinet, is being dealt with by Attorney-General Farris, who is now preparing a memorandum on the whole issue, which he will place before the Executive.

This announcement was made this afternoon by Premier Oliver following a two-hour meeting of the Cabinet, which an accumulation of details were dealt with.

The decision of the Executive is expected within a week. Members of the City Council said today that they are anxious to hear the result of their appeal to the two aldermen out of their whole number voted for the salary increase. As will be noted, now stands the Council cover whisky.

The Municipal Act says the Council must pay any increase ordered by the City Council, subject to an appeal to the Provincial Executive.

Empire Premiers Will Discuss Japan Next Week

London, June 25.—The next session of the conference of Empire Prime Ministers will be held Monday, to which day adjournment was taken yesterday after some of the Prime Ministers had delivered addresses.

Generally it is assumed that although Premier Meighen is opposed to renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, he will not press his opposition against the wishes of the other Prime Ministers. It is understood that detailed discussion of this matter will take place next week.

Meighen Is Urging Empire Co-operate With All Nations

He and Others At Conference In London Oppose View Empire's Best Course Is to Arrange Special Alliances As In Pre-War Days.

London, June 25.—(By Grafton O'Leary, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—The first week of the congress of the Empire closed yesterday without having made much progress toward the disposal of the practical problems with which it has to deal. This week's sessions indeed have been entirely absorbed by reviews and discussions of the principles presently dictating the foreign policy of the Empire. Such discussion, of course, has been necessary, in as much as it was essential that the statements of the Dominions should be thoroughly informed of the international position as viewed by the Foreign Office before attempting to deal with and determine matters of high policy, or even to offer constructive criticism and advice respecting the policies to be pursued in future.

Conforming to the traditional policy of European chancelleries, the discussions have been secret, but enough is known of their purport to make one thing clear, and that is that within the conference are two distinct schools of thought. There is the school which, clinging to old pre-war traditions, believes the Empire can best promote its own interests and the peace of the world by a policy of special alliances. Such policy, the supporters of this school declare, is the only one that is not far removed from that ancient principle.

Co-operation.
The other school, which numbers Mr. Meighen among its adherents, places its trust in the policy of no special alliances but friendly co-operation with all the nations of the world.

Lord Curzon, it may be said, is of the latter school. In his view of foreign policy, presented to the conference on Wednesday, there was one eloquent sentence which summed up his foreign creed. He declared that however dazzling and brilliant British foreign policy had been in the days of Beaconsfield, when opponents had been discomfited, enemies destroyed, they were now living in a vastly different world and the need was for a new policy. Whether this principle triumphs in the conference only the decisions of the next fortnight can tell.

A Test.
Meanwhile the British people are passing through severe test. The news from India and elsewhere gloomy, the industrial situation is bad, 4,000,000 people are unemployed and the worst drought in a quarter of a century threatens the nation with tremendous loss. Despite all this and despite the fact that the Union Jack has been lowered during the past week on the field of international sport, the people are cheerful. The same spirit which triumphed in the darkest days of the war is proving similarly invincible in the crisis of peace.

Rejected First Offer.
"It was necessary for the city to reject the company's first proposal," Alderman John Harvey, Chairman of the Civic Industrial Committee, stated today. "Its first requests for concessions were really extraordinary. We have finally agreed now what should be put up to the electors in the way of concessions."

The civic authorities will not divulge for the present the concessions which they propose to allow the woolen company. It is understood, however, that these relate chiefly to taxation and water supplies.

The woolen company's representative who has been negotiating with the city will leave for England shortly to take up with the company heads the agreement which the city is now prepared to offer.

Establishment of a woolen mill here, the civic authorities believe would be of inestimable value to the city. The industry would provide employment for a large number of people and would provide a big payroll.

HALF-BREED HAD FIGHT WITH GUARDS

Bellingham, Wash., June 25.—Jack Kieft, said to be a half-breed Kik-tai Indian, staged a gun battle with Deputy Sheriff in Columbia Valley near the Canadian border, early yesterday afternoon. Walter Faggett, a bystander, was slightly wounded by one bullet and another cut through his coat sleeve.

Kieft, according to the officers, was taken by surprise just after he had crossed the boundary line with a sack of whiskey on his shoulder. He was arrested by two of the deputies, but was not searched, and as the trio were passing along a narrow trail, Kieft got the drop on the deputies and disarmed them but finally returned their weapons after they had promised they would not shoot him in the back, and ordered them to go in opposite directions.

Later he encountered two other deputies, who engaged him in battle from behind a stump. It is believed Kieft escaped with out being injured.

THE ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY.

The character and scope of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty which will expire next month appear to be misunderstood in many quarters in this country. For instance, the City Council of Vancouver recently passed a resolution, to be forwarded to the Imperial Conference, objecting to the renewal of the treaty unless it safeguards the right of the Dominion in regard to the control of Oriental immigration. Apparently the Vancouver Council has confused the Anglo-Japanese Treaty of alliance with the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation made with Japan by Great Britain in 1911 and subsequently adopted by the Parliament of Canada. It is this latter agreement, which will not expire until July 16, 1923, which contains provisions dealing with intercourse between the two nations, notably the clause providing that "the subjects of each of the High Contracting Powers shall in all that relates to travel and residence be placed in all respects on the same footing as native subjects." This treaty is not under consideration at present, and will not be until two years from now when the time of its expiration will be at hand. Moreover, even when its renewal is considered the matter will be one for the Canadian Parliament to deal with as far as Canada is concerned, since it, like all other treaties of commerce and navigation, must be passed at Ottawa before it can have any application to this Dominion.

The Anglo-Japanese treaty the renewal of which is one of the principal subjects for consultation at the Imperial Conference is an altogether different matter. It is a treaty of alliance, consisting entirely of naval and military stipulations, and therefore has nothing to do with commerce, navigation, travel and intercourse between this country and Japan. Its objects, as stated in the preamble, are: The consolidation and maintenance of general peace in the regions of Eastern Asia and India; the preservation of the common interests of all powers in China by insuring the independence and integrity of the Chinese Empire and the principle of the "open door"; the maintenance of the territorial rights of the high contracting parties in the regions of Eastern Asia and of India, and the defence of their special interests in those areas.

Article 2 of the treaty provides that "if by reason of unprovoked attack or aggressive action on the part of any power or powers, either party to the treaty should be involved in war in defence of its territorial rights, or special interests mentioned in the preamble, the other contracting party will at once come to the assistance of its ally, will conduct the war in common and make peace in mutual agreement with it."

Article 4 provides that if either of the contracting parties concludes a treaty of general arbitration with a third power, nothing in the agreement shall impose upon it an obligation to go to war with such power. As Great Britain has an arbitration arrangement with the United States the military clauses of the Anglo-Japanese alliance could have no application to the republic.

Resolutions on immigration to be forwarded to the Imperial Conference therefore have no direct bearing on the treaty of alliance under consideration and could have no effect in any other respect until the time has come for the Canadian Parliament to consider the renewal of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation two years from now.

REASON FOR OPTIMISM.

Those who are wont to become pessimistic over the future of this Province might find it profitable to survey the period which has elapsed since British Columbia entered Confederation almost fifty years ago. At that time the four main settlements included Victoria, Nanaimo, New Westminster and Cariboo, with small populated areas at Yale, Spuzzum and Hope. Less than forty thousand people constituted the population and the trade of the Province in Confederation year did not exceed $3,400,000. At the present time some six hundred thousand souls form the life and being of British Columbia and trade in timber alone amounts to nearly one hundred million dollars. Add to this nearly seventy million dollars in respect of agricultural production and thirty-four millions from mining activities and the contrast between "then" and "now" should provide sufficient encouragement to see that history is repeated during the next half century. If any other form of "Dutch courage" is necessary a flying visit to those important cities which did not exist at all in 1872 should supply it.

PUBLIC DUTY.

Now that the Premier of the Province and the Attorney-General and the Chairman of the Liquor Control Board have informed the general public that the law which succeeded the British Columbia Prohibition Act will be enforced in accordance with the will of the people and the instruction of the people's representatives it is fitting to remind all and sundry of the responsibility which rests with them.

The Liquor Control Act is the result of an order given to the Government by the electorate. It is the charter under which the Province of British Columbia has gone into the liquor business. It is not in fulfillment of any promise given by either of the political parties. It is not a sort of padded compartment in which any Administration may travel in comfort and collect the plaudits of the people. It is just one more liability which the public at large has chosen to add to the obligations that its servants must discharge. How much of a liability, how much of a task, it will turn out to be depends upon the amount of support which the public is prepared to extend to those who are responsible for its administration.

If the people as a whole realize the responsibility which it is their duty to accept, if they accept it and discharge it by virtue of their own interest in the business delegated by them to the Government, the operation of the Liquor Control Act should be no more difficult than the operation of any other law. If there is any marked desire or intention on the part of a large or small section of the people to inject something into the law which was never intended when the electorate issued its instructions last October, if there is any attempt to obtain discriminatory interpretation of any portion of the law, either to satisfy political expediency or to placate any particular element of society which may care more about its own inclinations than it does about the principle of popular government, British Columbia may expect as much of a fiasco from this law as it actually experienced under the Prohibition Act.

It is a matter of great importance and of great seriousness for this Province. The eyes of the country are turned towards British Columbia in the knowledge that it has embarked upon an enterprise which draws public opinion into conflict more acutely than almost any other issue of modern times. On account of this if for no other reason—and there are many—the people of this Province should find it simple to realize just how much depends upon them in connection with the success or failure of the Liquor Control Act.

If those responsible for its administration are hampered in the discharge of their task by conditions which the law should not be permitted to contemplate it will not be fair to place the blame upon them. Any shortcomings on their part will be emphasized or minimized by the volume of public sentiment and the direction in which it flows.

"SPANKING" SIMS.

If the official conscience of the United States Navy Department derived anything like a soothing balm from its public "admonition" of Rear-Admiral Sims it may not be regarded as a very exacting conscience. It cannot be argued that the incident would permit of absolute silence on the part of the American authorities. The gallant sailor is a flag officer in one of the greatest navies of the world and his observations relating to citizens of the country to which he owes allegiance were made in what has to be regarded as a foreign land. In spite of these obvious truths it is highly probable that if Secretary Denby had really believed that Sims would have been moved to nothing much more impressive than a confession of regret for having "spilled the beans" he would have reduced the amount of publicity devoted to the incident. In the meantime the man who commanded the American fleet in the war zone has been told that he was really a very naughty boy and that if he should repeat the offence it would be necessary to spank him very severely. It now remains to be seen whether the President will detect sufficient tolerant sympathy among the people as a whole to warrant the elevation of the culprit to the full rank of Admiral. In any case if the United States were to be attacked on the high seas within the next twenty-four hours it would neither require a Cabinet Council to appoint a Commander-in-Chief nor a delegation to ask the popular and inevitable choice to take his place aboard.

WHAT WAS EXPECTED.

British mine owners and British miners have agreed to meet on Monday for the purpose of discovering a way to end the strike. The gathering will be held at the offices of the Board of Trade and representatives of the Government will hold a watching brief and offer such advice as may be necessary. This is a vastly different type of conference from that which the Miners' Federation had announced as the prelude to a general stoppage of work by all those trades which are having difficulties in the matter of wage adjustments. Nothing else was expected. Organized labor may be sympathetic to those of its branches which find themselves in difficulties but Trades Unionist altruism has its clearly defined limits. On this account there will be no general strike; and it will not be surprising if the miners end their three months' holiday in a very short time.

NOTE AND COMMENT

It is reported that Mexico may have a Bolshevik uprising. What is in a name? She is used to these little affairs.

Amid confusion and turmoil the American Federation of Labor condemned the Russian Soviet Government. Why borrow the confusion and turmoil from Moscow?

Some people would offer quite a lot for a verbatim report of the conversation which took place between Rear-Admiral Sims and President Harding yesterday.

If the Government and Liquor Control Board joint statement on the "beer question" does nothing else it should put an end to a lot of questions which had appeared to take no stock in the provisions of the law.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

ESSENTIAL TO UNION.

(The St. John Globe.)

We have had some very striking examples lately of the deterring influence that existing conditions are having upon our Maritime industries, business and ports, and if there is any way by which these conditions can be removed or ameliorated it would seem to be up to the people of these Provinces to stress them in every possible way. Certainly no harm can come to either the Maritime Provinces or to Canada by pressing for a greater development of the Provinces by the sea. They were proven to be absolutely essential to the consolidation of the union of British North America when Confederation was entered into. And they are even more essential today to the unification and progress of the Dominion as a whole.

"The stars incline, but do not compel."

HOROSCOPE

Saturday, June 25, 1921.
(Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

This is one of the days that are counted lucky in the calendar of human hopes. Jupiter, the Sun and Mars are all in benefic aspect. Saturn, alone, is adverse.

It is a rule under which to push all lines of business, especially whatever depends on future development and enterprise.

Bankers, brokers and business men have the best direction of the stars making for large projects ably managed. Again, there is a sign interpreted as forecasting a vacancy in a place of supreme honor.

There is a planetary government at this time that is most promising for revenue measures. Congress may win the gratitude of the people under this way.

Tailwinds will come much into public consideration in the next few weeks, when some critical problem will be much discussed.

The position of Uranus at this time is most unfortunate for the King of England.

Personalities are likely to enter into Congressional speeches this summer when there may be friction among leaders.

Women are to seek a larger representation in legislative bodies if the signs are read aright.

Serious fires may be expected in the West and a large city will suffer a great loss.

All the signs are sinister for Turkey, which is to disintegrate, or at least to suffer grave changes.

Pacifists will make strong representations during the coming weeks, while danger of war and need of military force seem imminent.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect an active and prosperous year that brings success in many lines.

Children born on this day will be industrious, energetic and clever, in all probability. These subjects of Cancer have most hospitable instincts and many hotel-keepers have been born under this sign.

Doctors Give Up His Case of Eczema

Wonderful recovery of a very sick man. This is a case of the most serious kind. We are publishing of what the D. D. D. prescription is accomplishing among Canadian sufferers.

"I was laid up all winter with eczema. I tried every doctor in reach. Both hands, arms and legs to my knees were a sight. I have used several bottles of D. D. D. and am well of the terrible disease. D. D. D. is certainly cheap after the doctor."—Peter Mercer, Ft. Burwell, Ont.

The first drop of D. D. D. and the skin is better. Keep using it. One bottle does not relieve you. $1.00 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

Government Inviting Tenders to Complete Vessels on Stocks

Victoria and Vancouver Shipbuilders Submitting Tenders For Work on Wooden Barquentines Now Lying In Uncompleted State At This Port.

Tenders are to be invited from British Columbia shipbuilders by the Dominion Government for the completion of the wooden barquentines started at the Cholberg shipyard here under an agreement between the Federal authorities and the Victoria (B. C.) Shipowners, Ltd.

The Dominion Government, as previously announced, has taken over the ships and will complete the programme which has been hanging fire for several months owing to financial trouble.

Specifications have been prepared and tenders will be called early next week for the completion of the wooden barquentine Simon P. Tolmie, now lying in the Inner Harbor. There is comparatively little work to do on the S. P. Tolmie before she will be ready to go on berth.

Control Operation.

The Government will control the operation of the ships, and it is assumed will protect the interests of the shareholders.

Tenders will later be called for the completion of the vessel Sir Henry Drayton, which is lying partially completed on the ways here.

This vessel is in frame and already planked to the turn of the bilge.

The third vessel, which also is in frame, will be completed later.

As it stands at present it is altogether likely that the Government will call for tenders to complete the vessels singly. It is not definitely known whether the fourth ship under the former arrangement will be laid down.

Many After Contracts.
A number of British Columbia firms are figuring on the contracts to complete the ships. Among the firms tendering are: Yarrows, Ltd., Esquimalt; Victoria Machinery Depot, Ltd., Victoria; William Turpel, well-known shipbuilder of Victoria in the early days, and Chris. Cholberg, of the Cholberg Shipyard, of Vancouver, and probably John Coughlan & Sons, of Vancouver, will also submit tenders.

William Turpel, it is understood, is going to Ottawa to convince the Government that he is the man to complete the ships. The Government intends to get the shipbuilding operations resumed with as little delay as possible and it is expected that the successful tenders will be announced very shortly and work started again in the shipyard on the Reserve.

NOTICE OF GUN PRACTICE.

Shipping is hereby warned that night gun practice will take place from Belmont Battery, Rodd Hill, Esquimalt harbor, on the nights of Monday, June 27, Tuesday, June 28, Thursday, June 30, and Monday, July 4, between the hours of 10 p.m. and midnight (city time). The danger area is within a semi-circular line at a distance of 10,000 yards from the lighthouse at the entrance of the harbor.

CREEPS INTO THE SYSTEM JUST LIKE A SERPENT

Like a thief in the night, it steals through the system—that's how Catarrh acts. Don't trifle with such a scourge. Time and experience have proved that Catarrh is a wonderful remedy for all Catarrhal and bronchial troubles. You don't take any drugs, you just inhale the sweet soothing vapor of Catarrh, which is laden with balsamic essences that heal, relieve and ease the sufferer. To strengthen the throat, to sweeten the breath, to stop nasty discharges, to drive out Catarrh, colds and weakness in the throat, use Catarrh.

Two months' treatment one dollar, smaller size 50c, all dealers or the Cattarhose Co., Montreal.—Advt.

Daniel Trearty, who pleaded guilty at Glasgow to stealing a cash box and $119, was sent to prison for three months.

William Murray, Campbelltown, was sentenced to a Borstal Institution for two years for stealing $105 from a Clachan merchant.

SEVERAL OCEAN LINERS COMING ON

Wenatchee, Africa Maru and Fushimi Maru Due Here Next Week

Scheduled deep-sea arrivals during the coming week include the American liner Wenatchee and the Japanese liners Fushimi Maru and Africa Maru. Since she left Yokohama the Wenatchee has been making good time, and unless further trouble intervenes to delay her the vessel is expected to arrive here next Wednesday. The Wenatchee has occupied nearly two months in making the Oriental voyage, having sailed from Victoria April 10. She is said to have about 160 cabin passengers aboard, including three for this port. Following her arrival at Seattle the Wenatchee will be laid up for some time for the replacement of defective auxiliaries.

The Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Africa Maru will arrive from the Orient either on Wednesday or Thursday. The Africa Maru has two cabin passengers and 45 steerage for Victoria. Her cargo this voyage is on the light side.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Fushimi Maru, according to the latest advices, will break into the holiday season on July 1. She has about 200 passengers all told and a fair Oriental cargo.

Niagara Due July 3.
Inbound from the Antipodes, the Canadian-Australian liner Niagara is now looked for here July 3. She has not yet been reported leaving Honolulu.

The C. P. O. S. liner Montague is reported to have sailed from Yokohama and is expected here the first week in July.

DECREASE IS SHOWN IN FISH CATCHES

Only Increase Is Seen in Halibut Taken on British Columbia Coast

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press)—The fish catch for May showed a remarkable decrease from the catch during May for last year, according to the Monthly statement issued by the Dominion Fisheries Branch. The total was 670,118 cwt., as against 950,145 cwt., and valued at $2,072,137, as against $3,458,235.

The halibut catch of British Columbia increased from 22,164 cwt. for May of 1920, to 33,286 cwt. for May of this year.

DECREASE IS SHOWN IN FISH CATCHES

Only Increase Is Seen in Halibut Taken on British Columbia Coast

Ottawa, June 25.—(Canadian Press)—The fish catch for May showed a remarkable decrease from the catch during May for last year, according to the Monthly statement issued by the Dominion Fisheries Branch. The total was 670,118 cwt., as against 950,145 cwt., and valued at $2,072,137, as against $3,458,235.

The halibut catch of British Columbia increased from 22,164 cwt. for May of 1920, to 33,286 cwt. for May of this year.

Preparations were under way last month for the salmon canning season. Blueback salmon were reported plentiful in the Gulf of Georgia. Spring salmon fishing in the Prince Rupert district was not as good as usual.

During the month of May five fishermen were lost at sea—four on the Atlantic coast and one on the Pacific.

Comrades McKenzie and Crouch will carry on the secretarial duties of the local body for the time being.

Court of Appeal.

The appeal of Duncan in the case of Loewen vs. Duncan, a dispute over a land deal at Shawigan, was completed yesterday and judgment of the Court reserved. The preliminary list includes Greenizen vs. Twigg; Campbell vs. Oliver and Gibbs vs. Walters.

Dangerous Fire Quelled.

What threatened to be a serious conflagration broke out at 1.15 this morning in the plant of the Sidney Roofing Company on the Songhees Reserve area. One of the asphalt tanks caught alight, but was promptly extinguished by the services of the fire department, who made short work of the incipient blaze. A spread of the flames might have involved the loss of the plant.

Car Overturned.

Car Park Street, with a party yesterday evening, were in a serious accident when their car overturned while making the corner at Queen's Avenue and Cook Street. The car overturned, throwing the occupants out into the street. Mrs. Brown was cut over the left eye and bruised; Mrs. Hirsch, of Marigold, suffered bruises and shock; Miss Maynard sustained injury to an arm. The three ladies were taken to the Jubilee Hospital, where Dr. McMichael attended.

St. Ann's Closing.

There was a large audience at the closing exercises last night of the senior students of St. Ann's Academy. Frank Sehl acted as chairman and Rt. Rev. Mr. Letemere, C. V. G., gave a splendid address. The auditorium was beautifully decorated and 150 girls' all in white occupied the platform. An excellent programme was given and the diplomas and other awards presented. The Sisters of St. Ann wish to thank those who assisted by furnishing the prizes.

"Spotting the Spot."

In the session of the Police Board last night Commissioner North stated he was concerned over the rise of the new traffic spots that have been placed in the intersections. Mr. North wanted to assured that anyone "spotted on the spot" would be "nipped." The traffic spots, or "dummy policemen," as the Commissioner called them, were already a dirty brown color and would soon be out of sight if automobile drivers persisted in driving over them and pedestrians would cross and wipe their feet on these white circles.

Suggests Disguise.

The Board of Police Commissioners last night received and filed with thanks a letter from J. A. Shanks on the question of investigations conducted by the Commissioners. Disguise should be adopted and Commissioners proceed without guard and singly on their investigations. Mr. North held that the investigators could not dispense with a guard, as if it were done, trouble would be sure to arise.

SHARP TILT IN POLICE COMMISSION OVER INVESTIGATION

In Open Rupture Over Right to Set Date For Investigation

An open rupture took place at the session of the Victoria Police Board last night between Mayor Porter in the chair and Commissioners Dr. Hall and Joe North. The storm arose quietly out of an application for an investigation at the hands of the Board from J. E. Paine, 39 Ontario Street, who in reply to a former communication to that body submitted a formal request for investigation.

The applicant requested the Board to investigate the actions of Detective Macdonald in regard to the arrest of the applicant some weeks ago on a charge of vagrancy. Mr. Paine claimed that he was unjustly confined to the city jail for three days, and if given an opportunity was prepared to state his case in person to the Board. The letter stated "Macdonald framed up the charge because I was not in a position to give him certain information which he desired."

The Circumstances.

Mayor Porter stated he was not in favor of any investigation on this at all, as it would lead to a host of similar cases that had already been weighed and passed on by the Magistrate. Commissioner North insisted that Paine be granted the privilege of an inquiry, which led the Mayor to ask for particulars.

Chief Fry stated that the occurrence had taken place just after the theft of liquor from the Rithet sheds at the Outer Wharf. "Paine went on to Port Angeles," stated the Chief, "and he openly bragged in town on his return that he with others had taken the liquor. He was later arrested on a charge of vagrancy, but discharged, being warned by the Magistrate."

"I think this man has a right to an investigation," stated Mr. North. "There is certain stuff working now with this stuff, threats and all that. Only fair that a citizen has a right to an investigation, open to the public, if you will."

After further slight discussion the chairman appointed Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock next as the date of the public investigation.

Objects to Time.

"I am a working man," declared Mr. North. "I am working for a living and I will be busy at the time then." "So I?" replied the chair. "Yes, but you get a salary," replied Mr. North. "It is not fair to pull me off the boats for this. I can't go to work and neglect my work, can I?" Mayor Porter reiterated that the meeting would be held on Wednesday at 2 p.m., and that he alone had the right to appoint the time and date.

Commissioner Hall, who had before had held aloof, now joined in, stating that the Mayor had no right to set the meeting in this manner, and that he would not attend any meeting set for Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Commissioner North also stated he would not attend.

Dr. Hall then stated the meeting would be held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

"Then I will not be there," stated the Mayor.

CRAIGFLOWER SCHOOL PICNIC YESTERDAY

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Craigflower School held their annual picnic yesterday, the function proving a success beyond all former occasions. Much credit is due to the committee composed of Mrs. Lorimer, Mrs. Massick, Mr. Seale and Mr. Pope who were responsible for the arrangements of the day. The committee passed a hearty vote of thanks to those who donated prizes for the sports and games, including Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Chaston, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Massick, Mrs. Fanthorpe, Mrs. Widdowson and Mrs. Humphries. A generous surplus of good things to eat were later conveyed to the Protestant Orphanage.

The jerky movements that characterize the disordered nervous system, the tremors and sometimes the whole body jerks spasmodically, and in severe cases the power of speech is affected. Such a child should not be allowed to study, and should be given a quiet, nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help the blood restore the shattered nerves. The value of this treatment is attested by the following statement from Mrs. Frank Reynolds, Windsor, N. S., who says: "When a young girl is suffered severely from St. Vitus' dance, the parents know of no remedy. If I tried to handle dishes I shrank them, and could not safely attempt to hold a thing in my hands. No matter what was done for me I never recovered. My parents gave me several remedies, but they did not help me. Then one day my father brought home a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Since then there has been taken there was an improvement in my condition. By the time the last box was gone, to my own great joy and relief to our family, I was able to do all my usual work, and I have since enjoyed good health. GOOD ROAD LEAGUE URGED TO HOLD ITS NEXT MEETING HERE

Mayor Wants Definite Decision on Next Convention

Mayor Porter who, with J. L. Beckwith, represented Victoria at the recent convention of the Good Roads League of Canada in Halifax, has written to the secretary of that organization to ask that the league decide finally to hold its next convention in Victoria. At the convention the resolutions committee recommended Victoria as the next meeting place, while the delegates generally favored this plan. No definite action was taken on the matter, however, and the Mayor is urging the executive of the League to reach a final decision as soon as possible.

Some of the work done at the convention is outlined in a report which the Mayor and Mr. Beckwith have laid before the civic authorities. The report reads, in part, as follows:

To the members of the Victoria City Council:

Gentlemen: As delegates to the Eighth Annual Convention of the Canadian Good Roads Association held in Halifax, N. S., May 10, 11 and 12, 1921, we beg to submit the following report.

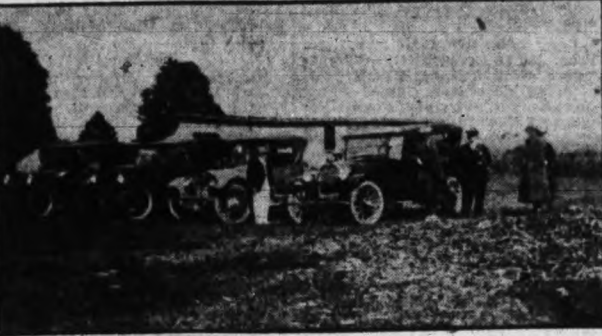

The Convention opened at 9 a. m. on the 10th at Convention Headquarters in the Assembly Room of the Nova Scotia Technical College, the President, Dr. E. M. Desautels, presiding.

Practically every Province in the Dominion was represented; British Columbia having in attendance Hon. John Oliver, the Premier, besides your own delegates. At the opening session a most hearty welcome was extended to the Convention by Hon. McCallum Grant, Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia. The first session was largely devoted to short addresses by members from the different Provinces as well as several mayors of different cities, including the mayor of Victoria. After the preliminaries connected with the Convention settled down to the work of the sessions, and a number of very interesting and valuable papers were read in connection with highway construction. We found that some of the provinces had taken full advantage of the generous offer of the Federal Government in their grants in aid of construction known as "Federal Aid to Highways."

Every session of the Convention was well attended, the work put through promptly and much valuable information obtained. We learned that the arrangement of the grants by the Federal Government is on the basis of forty per cent. of the entire cost on main trunk roads, but roads receiving the aid must first be agreed to by the Federal Government.

Some of the provinces realized that they had not taken as full advantage of the Federal Aid as they might have done, and the expression was very general from members of provincial governments present that greater activity would be the order in future. We were pleased to hear our own

LEADERS IN CLUB TOUR

The above photo was snapped at Saseneos, Sooke Harbor, just after the three leading cars of the Victoria Automobile Club tour a week ago Wednesday had halted near the beach. The cars are those driven by Vice-President Alfred Carmichael, pathfinder of the tour; H. A. Davie and Harry Moore.

Premier state that British Columbia would be fully prepared to take advantage of the Federal Aid proposition to the limit. This should mean greater activity in highway construction in British Columbia.

Enlarged Photographs—Your delegates had the pleasure of presenting to the Canadian Good Roads Association a large photograph of the ceremonies at Alberni in 1912 in connection with the planting of the Western post of the Canadian National Highway. The picture was received, on behalf of the Association, by Mr. S. L. Squire, the Chairman of the Executive, with a few words of appreciation and an assurance that the picture would be given a prominent place in the head office of the Association in Montreal.

We are pleased to be able to report that the invitation which was extended on behalf of Victoria for the holding of next year's convention in our city was well received and a very general feeling expressed in favor of the same.

Much might be said of the very cordial and altogether splendid reception tendered the delegates by the Mayor and many others of the good people of Halifax. The ladies particularly showed such a degree of hospitality as would be hard to equal. Motor cars were constantly at our service, and all were given an opportunity of seeing many points of interest in and around this interesting city.

Among the many receptions tendered the delegates the one which was considered a great treat was that given at Government House by Lieutenant-Governor Grant, who extended a welcome to the representatives from all parts of the Dominion which will not soon be forgotten.

On Wednesday evening a banquet was given the delegates and their ladies at the Halifax Hotel, which was attended by Lieut. Governor Grant and representatives from practically every Provincial Government in the Dominion. A number of short after-dinner speeches were listened to and the outstanding topic was "Good Roads."

After the business of the Convention was finished, the delegates were given a great treat in a trip on the Dominion-Atlantic Railway to see a portion of the far-famed Annapolis Valley, the land of Evangeline and the great apple orchards. Some fifty of the delegates were able to take advantage of this trip and all were high in their praise of the magnificent scenery and the pleasure was much enhanced by the good roads throughout the entire drive.

GREEN TIMBERS ALONG HIGHWAY WILL FEEL AXE

Logging Operations Will Be Started Along Pacific Highway in Surrey

The installing of a donkey engine and attendant logging equipment just off the paved section of the Pacific Highway marks the beginning of the end for the Green Timber, Surrey's unrivaled scenic asset, and one of the very few stretches of virgin timber left in the Province, says a Surrey report. The Green Timber is expected to provide activity for the King-Parris mill for some two years. A logging railway track has already been installed, and other alterations effected to the plant for convenience in handling the timber.

The Surrey Board of Trade has fought hard to save this stretch, but the price asked by the lumbering concern for it was around $350,000, and considered prohibitive. The report of the Forestry Department of officials who it was agreed, should cruise the Green Timber, and value it to afford an independent basis for negotiations for its purchase, in order that it might be preserved, has not yet been made public.

The Vancouver Board of Trade and Automobile associations joined with New Westminster and Surrey organizations in the fight for the preservation of the tract of magnificent appearing timber which lies on each side of the recently paved section of the Pacific Highway. On the other hand there are those who maintain that the cutting of the timber is justified, especially in such a period of depression as is being experienced now, on the ground that it will find employment for many men, and bring revenue into the Province when the lumber is disposed of. Some experts declare the timber would have been lost by natural decay in the course of a few years, much as the giants of Stanley Park are going, because of the change in conditions. Even if a forest fire did not destroy it. But the vast majority of people who know the beautiful stretch will mourn its passing.

NEW CAR'S FUTURE DEPENDS UPON ITS OWNER'S TREATMENT

First 1,000 Miles Require Caution; Advice Given New Owners

By Alexander Johnston
Editor of Motor

This being the time of year when new cars are just getting into the hands of their proud owners, some advice on the treatment that should be accorded these newly born mechanical infants is timely. The average owner of a new car seems to think that because it is new, the careful handling of its career may be blasted by its first thousand miles of running.

In such a mechanism as the modern car, with its great number of moving parts, which have a clearance less than .0005 of an inch, it is obvious that there must be considerable initial tightness of the various parts. As the mechanism continues to operate the parts rub a little and gradually become a little looser. In other words the mechanism gets down to normal working form.

Lubrication Important—Under these circumstances, copious lubrication is the prime essential for the new car. Parts that are unusually tight must have the protecting film of lubricant or excessive wear will result, with knocks, pings and perhaps complete ruin. When the new car is sent to the owner, it is supposed to be completely oiled and greased. Often a careless merchant overlooks a grease cup or oil hole, so the first thing the new owner should do is to go over the car completely and see that all lubricant receptacles are filled. The transmission and rear end should be inspected to see that they are filled with gear oil.

Watch the New Battery—Frequently the men in the service allow 2 weeks for the car to come from the factory. In this time the battery may lose most of its power. As soon as the car is received, the battery should be tested with a hydrometer and if below charge should be filled with distilled water.

Frequently the men in the service station forget to pump up tires to their proper pressure in sending out the new car. The tire pressures should be carefully tested and corrected if necessary.

When these various little matters have been attended to the car is ready for the road, but even now the utmost care is essential. Remember that all the working parts are stiff and tight. Do not try to speed up. It is difficult for the oil to reach the working surfaces, because the clearances are less than they will be later. Do not race the engine. Do not throttle down too low on high gear. Do not try to see how far up a hill you can go before changing gears. If the engine smokes, do not reduce the oil supply, for that smoke simply means that the lubricant is getting to the working surfaces.

The owner of a new car must expect to use more fuel than he will later, because the stiffness in the moving parts consumes extra power. After the mechanism has worked into normal operation, it may be necessary to reset the carburetor.

When the car has been run for a couple of weeks it should be taken to the service station and the parking and lighting system should be checked up. The charging rate may not be correct for the type of driving that the owner does.

After the new car has run for a week or ten days it ought to be gone over thoroughly for loose parts. Nuts and bolts will probably need a turn with the wrench, spring clips may have stretched. In short a general tightening up will probably be needed.

The owner of a new car will have to be particularly careful in using the clutch. This part will be stiff and must be engaged slowly and gently. It must not be slipped. This advice also applies to the gearset. Gears at first will probably not mesh easily but they must not be jammed in. The greatest care should be used to avoid harsh shifting.

Treat Finish Gently

As with the mechanism, so it is with the finish of the car; the first 1000 miles will determine the future. The lustrous enamel and varnish, in which the body is finished, must have careful handling when they are new and not entirely "set." Slight abrasions cause lasting injuries. The body should be washed with cold water, poured gently over the surface, a big sponge being used as good a medium as any. After about a month it is a good plan to begin using body polish and continue with it consistently.

Remember that the first 1,000 miles of operation will tell the tale of the future life of the car.

THIN MIXTURE NEEDED IN SUMMER WEATHER

Greater Mileage May Be Secured by Adjusting Carburetor

Let no one deceive himself into thinking that the present agitation for saving gasoline is a "scare" or idle talk for it is, in fact, a movement that should be taken in deadly earnest, and colored into with the utmost seriousness. Nobody is "crying wolf," but rather a solemn economic warning is being uttered. Carburetors adjusted for over-rich mixtures are the greatest preventable cause of fuel waste in the motor world, and investigation tends to show that nine-tenths of the carburetors are habitually kept set in this condition. During the Winter there is some excuse for this practice, because of the difficulty of cold weather starting, the fact that many cars still lack adequate manifold heating devices and means for keeping the circulating water hot and because the use of cars is largely restricted to short runs and city service, which results in over-cooled engines and calls for mixtures capable of producing rapid acceleration in traffic. The intent of this article is to emphasize the following points: That the warm season is the time to which gasoline can be saved with the least inconvenience.

Rich Mixture Bad

The over-rich carburetor settings are especially inadvisable in warm weather and that they should not be allowed to "hang over" into the Summer, but should be superseded by leaner adjustments which will be found equally satisfactory, much more economical and better in respect to oil conservation and the reduction of carbonization. Every operator is hereby urged to give attention to his carburetor, as soon as the weather becomes continuously warm, to the end that its running adjustment be made as lean as will give reasonably good power and acceleration, when the engine has reached a normal running temperature. Have you ever experimented to see just how lean a mixture your engine will run on satisfactorily? Why not do so, the next time you take a long trip on a warm day? Your instruction book tells you how to make the mixture leaner and it is simply a matter of a fraction of a turn of a readily accessible screw, not requiring the use of tools. Chances are that you will be surprised that you have been feeding so much more gasoline than required and that you will be pleased with the reduction of your fuel consumption, when the carburetor has been reset.

IMPRESSIVE DISPLAY OF PASSENGER CARS

Nearly 400 Autos Parked Over the Bay Wednesday Night

One of the biggest and most impressive collections of automobiles seen in Victoria for some time was witnessed Wednesday night during the holding of the Masonic banquet in the Old Drill Hall on Menzies Street, and the Scottish football match at the Stadium. From Belleville Street right up to Superior, and even round the corner on Superior, a distance of three blocks, cars were lined up on both sides of the street in solid formation. Quebec and Kingston Streets also being requisitioned for the purpose. Many thousands of dollars in value were represented in the lines, which included all manner and makes of cars.

Outside the Stadium grounds there were no less than 275 cars parked, while outside the banquet hall there were 103, making a total in the two places, of 379 automobiles.

LATEST REVIEW OF AUTO SITUATION IN PROVINCE

Facts and Figures on All Phases of Motordom Given
by J. J. Banfield

Some very interesting data for motorists and others was disclosed in the address of J. J. Banfield, president of the British Columbia Automobile Underwriters' Association during last week's convention in Vancouver and through the kindness of Mr. L. Warren, a copy has been supplied for the benefit of Times readers.

The address is so full of interest that it is given in full.

We are closing the year with a Seeker-after-knowledge, and in a branch of the insurance business which might be said to be only in its incubation stage, says Mr. Banfield.

The framework we have so carefully constructed has often been threatened, and sometimes injured without, and we have been required to exercise the greatest care to keep it from being altogether shattered.

As automobiles have paved the way for improved roads, the increase of the truck traffic leads in the demand for roads with heavier bases. The traffic of the truck will increase, as they are competitors with the railroads, in short hauling. As the automobiles have brought the suburban sections within easy reach of our business centres, so the truck will develop the production of the surrounding districts. It will deliver the fresh produce to the consumer daily, and take back to the farmer his requirements, as well as deliver inter-urban freight.

Truck Is Paramount

Owing to the physical condition of this Province, no motor power meets so well our requirements as the truck. Settlement will follow good roads, and the truck will assist settlement. The East have realized the possibilities of the truck, and developed it. Our Province and our Municipalities will be required to build the necessary roads to take care of the increased traffic.

Farmers are the backbone of the community, and a contented farmer, is essential to the success of the business community.

The automobile has made better conditions possible for the farmer; it has broadened his viewpoint by a more frequent intercourse with his neighborhood; the children are carried in automobiles to community schools; the small church in the small village is forgotten, the people are attending larger church organizations, hearing better music, better preaching, and receiving a broader knowledge of current events, and all this is the outcome of the gasoline engine and good roads. I have outlined my thoughts in this connection in order that you might better appreciate at this time the possibilities in this branch of our insurance business.

Alarming Figures

It is regrettable that the automobile, which has become such a potent factor in our business lives, should also be an instrument which, in many cases, under the guidance of persons unworthy of such responsibility, has been the cause of so much destruction and loss of life. The following figures, which I have taken from the police returns, to say the least, are

Huge Tank Falls on Automobile

The collapse of timbers supporting a 10,000-gallon tank of water on the Pacific Coast recently had a most remarkable effect. When the structure was raised, workmen pulled out from underneath the wreck what was once an Overland car. It did not bear much resemblance to an automobile, but it could be distinguished as an Overland by its Triplex Springs, which had sustained the enormous weight without being even cracked. The wheels were not broken, but had been jammed into the ground; the axles were not broken, but they were bent.

The appearance of the body of the car may be judged from the accompanying picture showing it as it was ready to tow to the Los Angeles Willys-Overland Branch.

rather alarming, and should be much food for thought.

In the year 1919, there were 2,822 automobile accidents reported to the police, and fifteen people killed.

In the year 1920, 4,044 automobile accidents occurred, and seventeen people were killed.

For the five months of this year to May 31, 1,429 accidents happened, and eight people were killed.

Victoria City Police.—Accidents reported to the Police in writing in compliance with the "Motor Traffic Regulations Act" for the three years, about 2,000. Accidents reported to the police in which injury to the person was sustained:

1919—Fifty-five and one death.

1920—Sixty-three and two deaths.

1921—Forty-three and two deaths, till May 31.

The above, of course, does not include Provincial, Spanish, Oak Bay or Esquimalt.

Restrictions Needed

No doubt many accidents occurred which were not reported to the police. The above statistics only cover the city. More stringent regulations to protect the public against reckless driving should be enacted. There is also connected with this thought, that the collision hazard of automobile insurance business is so great as to become unprofitable insurance risk and a change may shortly take place in this connection.

To further illustrate the tremendous growth in the use of automobiles, since our Association was started, there are in British Columbia to-day over 30,000 automobile licenses in use, or an increase of 5,000 in twelve months. The number of licenses in use to-day in Vancouver City is over 15,000, an increase of 2,000 in one year. There have been issued from January 1 to May 31, 750 new licenses exclusive of re-issues.

Insurance Carried

We are more interested in the actual increase of the automobile insurance written. Judging from the Provincial Government report, the owners of automobiles apparently appreciate the necessity of protection. The premium income for the year 1916, the year our Association started, was $93,559.32, and for 1920, $558,698.74, almost 550 per cent. of an increase, while the number of companies writing business has increased from thirty-four to sixty-six.

In 1919 the Underwriters decided to establish a stamping bureau, and, during that year, 10,000 dailies were stamped, while during the last twelve months 14,000 policies were issued in British Columbia. The only way that we can grasp the significance of these figures is to compare them with other offices. According to the last annual report of the stamping officer of the Province of Manitoba and Saskatchewan combined, for the ten months, comprising from the first fiscal period, they stamped 14,500 dailies. When it is taken into consideration that the Province of Manitoba is far larger than British Columbia, and they have added to Manitoba, the Province of Saskatchewan, surely, it has been demonstrated that we have the automobile business under proper control.

Our executive, during the first six months of 1921, has held thirty meetings, and, at the present time, there are sixty-six companies, members of our association, writing automobile insurance. Business has increased two and one-half times in two years and the number of members have doubled in two years. We have held twice as many meetings in the last eighteen months as in the previous six years of our existence as an association.

DON'T LEAVE PICNIC LITTER IN COUNTRYSIDE

Motorists Should Aid in Preservation of Natural Beauty

One great advantage of being the owner of an automobile lies in the fact that one may, with very little trouble and at the expense of a few hours, have a picnic quite frequently during the Summer months. Not a few motorists forget that they owe a duty to the community after the picnic is over and before they return to town.

The great fault found with motorists who picnic along the side of the road and in public and semi-public parks is that they fail to clean up the debris after they have had their fun.

"Park your car anywhere you wish, but clean up the litter afterward."

This advice ought to be posted, according to thoughtful motorists, at many points along the country roads, and especially at the hundreds of pleasant little vantage points where family motoring parties are in the habit of stopping for lunch. A cool and inviting bit of shade, a spring by the roadside, or a slightly spot overlooking a sheet of water—these are the places sought in Summer by the touring parties, and when the ideal bit of ground has been reached out come the food hamper and the sandwiches, and all too frequent the scraps of wax paper and the ice cream boxes and the other essentials that "mother" has been thoughtful enough to put in are left lying about so, scattered by the wind, or trampled into the ground. One of the pleasantest things about the motor picnic is to find the lunching place scrupulously clean, and one of the most disappointing is to find it untidy. Could not every party make it a point to clean up after the picnic, and so have things in tidy shape for the "next"? To do this, says a writer in Country Life, would remove what is called one of the motorists' gravest disregards for his fellow men.

Now Comes Luncheon

We are going, says the writer, nowhere in particular, just touring along until we come to an inviting spot where we will have luncheon. An ideal spot for a picnic. So we park the car, unload the baskets and tins of bottled ham or tongue. Seating ourselves on newspapers spread on the ground for that purpose, we re-gale ourselves.

Lunch takes up quite a bit of time, and suddenly father announces that if we want to drive any more that afternoon we must start at once. So hastily we pack the baskets and drive off. Do we stop to gather up the remains of the food and scraps of paper, the empty tins and bottles? In nine cases out of ten we do not. We have had our fun, we have enjoyed the view—what do we care for the others who are to come? Probably we don't give a thought to these others.

Have Consideration

But what about public property—the parks and the edges of the public highways? Take a trip into the country in the vicinity of any big city any Sunday during the Summer. You will see innumerable cars parked by the roadside under the open sky. Then go over the same road the following day and see the nasty mess the picnickers have left behind—souvenir of their passing. And here these souvenirs remain for many a day until kindly nature obliterates them.

Why should this be? Have we no conscience? Is it right for us, having enjoyed the unspoiled beauty of some vista, to soil that view for others who may come later? Is it asking too much to give in return for a day's pleasure a few minutes of our time to gather up the debris and burn it?

The average motorist is a high-minded, patriotic citizen, careful of the rights of others in most matters. Yet so far as cleaning up is concerned, he apparently lacks a conscience.

EXIDE AGENCY IS ESTABLISHED HERE

Son of Former Mayor A. G. McCandless Gets Battery Station

An agency has been established in Victoria by the Exide battery people and P. A. McCandless, son of former Mayor A. G. McCandless is the local representative.

Mr. McCandless has his headquarters at 525 Yates Street, between the Revercomb Motor Company and the Kilpatrick-Moryson garage, and it is fitted with all the latest devices for battery service.

Mr. McCandless is well known on the local scene, and afterwards went to Cornell University, where he spent three years in the study of electrical engineering. Following the outbreak of war he came back to British Columbia to join up, and he went overseas with the C. E. F.

On his return to Canada he has been specializing in battery work in Vancouver, and recently received the appointment of representative of the Exide battery.

Mr. McCandless is glad to be back in Victoria, where he spent so many happy years, and his many friends are equally glad to have him back, and permanently engaged in business here. "Battery service is one of the most important elements in the automotive business, and I felt that there was a good field here for such an establishment. Besides, Victoria has other attractions as well as those purely commercial," said Mr. McCandless.

Cadet Camp Will Open On Monday

On Monday next the cadets of the Public and High Schools of this Province will go into camp for a whole week under training. From the Lower Mainland and Vancouver Island, cadets will be encamped at Sidney, where a large attendance is being expected. No less than five hundred and fifty are coming on the boat from the eight main schools in Vancouver while other places on the mainland are also to be well represented.

Since the cadet corps movement has become general in the West, Victoria schools have been well to the fore in the movement and a splendid contingent is being expected from the school corps of the city and district. The camp this year—as last—will be under Lieut.-Col. C. C. Bennett, D.S.O., who endeared himself to the lads at the last year's camp at Rod Hill Fort. Captain E. C. Weeks, M.C., M.M., a new-comer to this coast but destined to become equally popular with the lads, will be camp adjutant. The boys will in addition recognize many of the instructors from former camps.

The Sidney camp site is an ideal one for the purpose and close on one thousand cadets are being expected at this year's outing. The work in camp will be equally divided between useful and interesting instruction, with frequent opportunity for organized games and sports. Swimming will be one of the main pleasures of the boys, together with excellent facilities for field sports.

The cadets will entrain for camp in uniform and at least one band will be in attendance at the Sidney camp to enliven all route marches and the evenings in camp. Included in the list of articles that each boy is advised to take to camp are: Tooth brush, brush and comb, towel, knife, fork and spoon; with a change of underwear and such extra clothing in measure quantity as desired. The boys are advised not to try and take an article more than they will absolutely need, as when 1,000 are gathered together it is often difficult to find room for material that might as well have been left at home.

All boys should endeavor to take as much sporting equipment as they conveniently may, which will be of use to them in the games that are to be staged. All gear, it is stated, with the exception of sporting material, should be packed in a clean kit bag or a small grip. It is understood that at least one parent's day will be provided to give parents of the boys an opportunity of gaining an insight into the excellent instruction and facilities for amusement offered in the annual gathering. The cadet camp is being keenly anticipated by the local corps, who yearly vie keenly for honors in the good fellowship of friendly corps in competitive exercise. The Sidney camp is only one of several that will take place to give the B. C. school cadets an opportunity of practical training combined with a right good holiday in the field. Other camps are to be staged on the mainland which will be every bit as well attended in proportion to the local outing. It is rumored that the Mainland contingent for the Sidney camp will present a very smart turnout headed by the band of the Vancouver High School, and the local boys are making every arrangement to compare on the same footing with the Mainland group if not to go one better and carry off the Provincial honors.

The Tale of a Comet's Tail

There is a great deal of talk these days about comets and their arrival, impending arrival and influence on the earth, and so on, according to the late Sir Robert S. Ball, a noted astronomer of the earlier days, we find that the earth was really visited by a comet in the year 1861, and that the earth was, as it were swept by the tail of the comet. No ill effects followed and the only loss occasioned was that in a village church where the sexton had to light two candles to enable the rector to finish reading his sermon, as the light of day had become slightly clouded over by the tail of the comet.

In reality the comet is composed of a very flimsy substance, three elements of which astronomers have discovered are sodium, carbon and iron, all three being also found on the earth. The comet is first spotted by its tail, which it carries in the usual place of all such appendages, that is aft of its line of flight. The tail of the comet is made more evident to us at its approach to the sun, as the sun fuses much of the elements composing our comet and these are given off behind its flight like celestial smoke.

The comet in starting out, however, had only a limited amount of matter composing its frame, and in its many journeys and approaches to the sun is constantly giving off some of its substance, until at last, we are told, we behold the sad spectacle of a comet without any tail at all. The further the comet gets from the sun the more it cools off, as it were, and the less we see of its tail until it re-approaches and the tail becomes again luminous. The tail, in fact, is mainly composed of gaseous substances which are more spectacular in appearance than in actual weight or fact.

Comets approach within sight of the earth on several different occasions but not so frequently that we get tired of their expected advent, and a very deep interest is taken in comets by scientists, who generally manage to find out more about each quaint visitor every time he gets within sight. Just now scientists are awaiting further news of the Pons Weinek Comet and no doubt in due course we shall be told of the condition of its known-to-be diminishing tail.

Vulcan and His Life Work

In these days of modern education it seems hard to believe that there ever were grown-up men and women, who believed that the sun moved around the earth, but we all knew that such was the belief of the ancients. These good people were so firmly convinced that the sun moved around the earth, which was to them, of course, stationary, that they had selected a deity whom they stated was the custodian of the worthy sun.

Our ancestors many years ago did not know the earth was round and when they saw the sun rise in the East, travel across the sky and dip below the horizon in the West they thought that the resplendent sun dropped into the sea. It was puzzling to them how it was that next morning another sun would be at work in the East, and going through the same movements. The more advanced people of those days held a theory which was accepted by the masses to be the solution of the apparently inexhaustible supply of suns.

Vulcan, they said, was employed by the gods to catch the sun in his barge every night, thus saving it from dropping into the water and being put out. Vulcan was then obliged to paddle all night to ferry the sun around by way of the North from the West to East so that he might be on hand for the next day's run. Vulcan, they claimed when he had completed one tour in this manner would shoot the sun far into the heavens thus casting it, like a baseball, across the earth.

The hard working deity would then be under the necessity of paddling around to the West in time to catch the sinking sun and again save it from destruction. This was, they said, Vulcan's life work, and to him they gave every credit for their daily sunshine, its light and generous warmth. The task that poor Vulcan had to perform satisfied every doubt of the ancients except in later years when mariners' and captains returned from voyages and stated that the sea on which they travelled seemed to be bending and was not a straight-away-for-ever-and-ever body of water as they had been taught. This, in after years, led to the statement that the earth was round, though many men were persecuted before the great majority of those in power could be convinced that it really was.

Encouraging Words For Local Scouts

In an interesting article in the headquarters' gazette of the Boy Scout Association the following treatise on the broader meaning of scouting may be an encouragement to Scout officers working under seeming difficulties:

"How many a Scoutmaster has come home from a meeting and asked himself this question? Sad at heart with a feeling that it is all hopeless, he has shaken his head and said, 'No I am afraid it is not. This Scouting is a good thing but it's not worth while.'"

"Well, brother Scoutmaster, just ponder a minute. Are you Scouting? That is the question. That perpetual badge-training; that flag wagging; that drill; those dry lectures; those long route marches on Saturday afternoon—that is not Scouting. Nor is your hand Scouting. The boys may be keen on it, you may like it, it may be an attraction—but it is not Scouting."

"Have you ever tried a war dance? Ever had a pow-wow round the council fire? Ever shoved in a week-end camp now and then? Ever tried tracking or nature study in the open?"

"No!"

"Then you've never Scouted. Your days of Scouting lie before you."

"Chuck all this indoor training and get out in the open. Badges are all very well but they're a side-line in Scouting. Give me a Scout and you can keep your twenty boys with a dozen badges each."

"Is it worth while? Sure it is."

"It's a bit kiddish."

"No it isn't, it's Scouting."

"Take half a dozen of your boys out to the woods for a week-end camp. Build your wigwam. Cook your own grub in your billy. Live free and easy. Forget the town and the club-room. You're no longer a Scoutmaster, you're a chief—those are your virtues."

"Spin them a yarn of the West, of the old pioneers, of the great rolling sea, of some animal, of tribal wars and customs."

"Watch their faces."

"Is it worth while? Sure thing it is."

"Ever try saying, 'God make us clean men,' in the glow of a council fire?"

"No!"

"Then your prayer's been lost."

"Ever try a dance round the fire, no thing on but shorts and shoes? It's mad certainly, but it's Scouting. Listen to the laughter from that brave of fourteen. That's his boy nature rejoicing. It's a clean happy laugh that, it rings true."

"Is it worth while? Sure thing it is."

"Ever try tracking through the woods in the early morning when the night trail is fresh? Ever hear the boys' happy shouts as they find something new, some clue that's fresh to them? Certainly it's a bit mad to grovel on the ground like that; but it's Scouting. They enjoy it immensely. They're mad on it. They will keep you going until dinner time."

"Is it worth while, all this mad enthusiasm?"

"Sure thing it is."

"No, sir, your continual grind in the club-room has failed hopelessly. Every thing is done with a grudge. The boys are fed up. Their attendance is irregular. They lack interest. You can get no attention."

"Then try the open, show them the wild, the free, the mad—if you will have it so. Give them the sunshine, the breeze, the river. That's Scouting. Try it."

"Six months afterwards ask yourself the same question—'Is it worth while?'"

"You'll laugh at yourself and thank God for being good to you."

Lord Rosebery paid a great tribute to the Scout Movement when he made this statement: "If I was to form the highest ideal for my country, it would be this, that it should be a nation of which the manhood was exclusively composed of men who had been or who were Boy Scouts, and who were trained in the Boy Scout theory. Such a nation would be the honor of mankind. It would be the greatest moral force that the world has ever known."

A Scout promises on his honor, that he will do his best; to do his duty to God and the King; to help other people at all times, and to obey the Scout law.

The Scout law says that, a Scout's honor is to be trusted; a Scout is loyal to the King, his parents, officers, country, employers, employees, and comrades; a Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others; a Scout is a friend to all and a brother to every other Scout; a Scout is courteous; a Scout is a friend to animals; a Scout obeys orders; a Scout smiles and whistles under all difficulties; a Scout is thrifty; a Scout is clean in thought, in word and in deed.

How Aircraft Fly

The general principles governing flight, as far as the heavier-than-air craft is concerned, have now been explained, in a manner that though, of course, brief may have helped our little readers to understand how it is the aircraft is sustained in the air, and in great weight supported by such light materials.

It will be remembered from former talks that the planes of which the aeroplane is composed will, when pushed sufficiently fast through the air, support the weight of the machine and its passengers known as the total load. This is accomplished by means of a powerful engine, more than one engine often being used in the larger types of aircraft.

Every aeroplane, or heavier-than-air craft, for that matter has to attain what is known as its "flying speed" before it will support itself in the air. This will be more easily understood when compared to the simple kite. It is when the wind is strong and steady that the kite fares best, and that is because the pressure of the passing air under the captive kite supports its weight the more easily.

This flying speed may be generally stated to be that speed at which the lift exerted by forcing the planes through the air will equal in force the opposite effect of gravity, or the net weight of the machine. In some machines this flying speed is as low as forty miles an hour, in which case the machine usually has a very broad set of wings and is not carrying very much additional weight more than beyond what is essential to its purpose.

But machines with such a low flying speed are seldom fast, beginning the flight at 40 miles an hour and rarely being capable of flying more than 65 to 70 at the outside, going what is commonly termed as their "speed" or maximum range.

Other machines, chiefly war types have a flying speed of as high as seventy-five miles an hour, that is, they must be driven at seventy-five miles an hour to remain in the air supporting their own weight, but these machines are powerfully engined and will often do up to one hundred and thirty miles an hour and even over. The speedy machine has narrow slightly cambered or curved wings and is the aristocrat of the flying world.

Of course, all machines will be capable of travelling at a very much higher rate when diving, when the weight of the machine is supporting the engine power to pull it ahead, and down, but this is not considered in the normal speeds of an aircraft and need not be dealt with at this stage of our talks. We are now ripe for a further talk on the elementary theory of flight, next week it being proposed to consider stability, or that factor which makes it possible for aircraft to remain in the air in spite of very humpy weather.

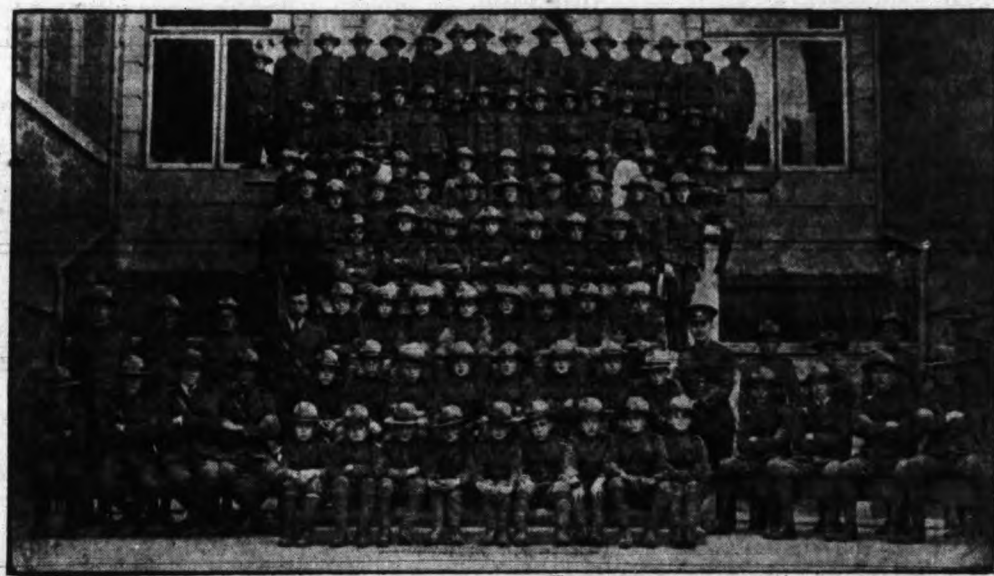

CONFIDENCE BETRAYED

Host: "Sorry you have to be going."
Guest: "Indeed, I am, too. By the way I'm not sure about my train, it's nine something, but."
Host's Little Son: "It's 9.32. Pa said he hoped you would take that one."

A LOCAL SCHOOL CADET CORPS

On Monday next nearly 1,000 cadets from the Island and lower Mainland will be in camp at Sidney. The Victoria and District schools are sending large contingents to take part in the annual camp.

Our Dumb Friends Have Long Memories

We often hear people talking about good memory, and too often boasting about their ability to remember this and that long after the event referred to had taken place. Listen then to this story of a fox terrier, and you will see that it is not only humans, who have memories that might well be classed as "useful."

"Jim" was a fox terrier, just an ordinary dog, no pedigree nor particular ancestors, just plain dog. He was, however, the great friend and playmate of a careful family in the southwest of Ireland, who treated him a little better than the average city bred terrier is looked after. Jim with his master lived in a charming old cottage on the roadside and had on the whole a very happy life.

It is the custom, or let us say was the custom, in those parts to deliver the mail daily by hand, the postmen often walking as much as twenty miles in the day on their normal rounds from post office to residents of outlying places. For many months a postman delivered mail to Jim's master and became friends with the terrier which he stopped to pet for a moment on every occasion.

After a time the postman fell sick and another man took his place. The new postman was new to both the round and its inhabitants, and therefore, it was not to be wondered that Jim barked on his approach. The postman showing a lack of foresight that afterwards cost him some pain, threw a stone at the dog to silence and frighten him into quiescence.

As misfortune would have it the stone broke Jim's leg and for many a long day he limped around on a make-shift bandage with splints that his master had with every attention provided. In the course of time, and time heals most troubles,

Jim was able to get about again and became his usual gay and debonair self. The accustomed postman and friend came back to his round and all was well.

One night, some long months after the breaking of his leg Jim pricked up his ready ears and listened. Yes, there was no possibility of mistake it was the "Stone-Thrower" passing on the road outside. Without wasting a second Jim ran out, and in less time than it takes to tell he had bitten a deep wedge out of the leg of his former enemy. The man howled with pain, complained later to the police and had poor Jim shot, but if the Stone-Thrower had remembered one-half as well as the unfortunate but loyal Jim, he would not have been surprised to have been bitten. Jim's memory was his undoing, but by all the rights of justice Jim was entitled to the revenge he took, and which no one else would expiate for him. A dog seldom forgets and it is as ready to remember a kind act as to avenge an unjust one, so why not always make a point of seeing that it is kindness that prevails in our treatment of our dumb friends, who cannot plead for themselves?

Take a Camera on Your Holiday

Now that school days are over and the Summer holidays have arrived, the time is ripe for our little readers to become identified with our coterie of camera-hunters. See to it that this Summer, if you have not done so before, you become an enthusiastic amateur in the art of nature photography. This is the season of picnics, fishing trips, walks through the woods, strolls on the hillside and glorious days at the seaside, all of which offer first rate opportunities for securing an entertaining record by means of taking pictures.

What did you do last Summer? You have a vague idea that you did this, or that, but unless you took photographs of your outings it would be very hard for you to say just how you spent your last year's holidays. If you are not already a member of our camera club join now and see that this Summer you perpetuate the memory of the pleasant days you spend in outings with photographs of your trips.

Our camera club members are now engaged on a contest which will in no way interfere with their pleasures, but rather serve as a useful hint for the means of adding to the happiness of this Summer holiday. Take a camera with you and see if you cannot obtain a photograph showing one or more of the many beauties that nature has to offer. It may be a bird or a beast, a tree or a simple fern, a domestic pet, such as a pet puppy dog, or a small kitten, anything, in fact, that occurs to you as being particularly beautiful from the point of view of showing one of the many works of nature in her many beautiful moods.

Three prizes are offered, a first prize of three dollars, a second of two dollars and a special prize by your Editor for the photograph approaching most nearly to the object of this competition. The photographs submitted need not be printed and developed by yourself, but must be taken by you in person, and must reach this office by the last day of July. Each photograph, and as many as one wishes may be contributed, should be accompanied by a short description of the circumstances under which the contribution was secured, with perhaps a little narrative about the subject matter of the photograph. The photographs should be as large a size as possible, for only those of a fair size can really show with clarity much of its subject that would otherwise remain indefinite. Expert photography is neither expected or wholly desired, the object of the competition being more in the subject chosen and the results obtained. This competition is open to all girls and boys of fifteen years of age and under, residing either in the city or anywhere on the Island. All contributions should be addressed to the Editor of the Children's Page, The Times, Victoria, B. C.

THE HANDY WALL

The baby started crying at the motion picture performance and the usher warned the parents that if the crying did not cease the infant would have to be taken out, the fares being refunded by the management. The baby was duly silenced, but towards the end of the act the mother was beginning to be bored by the picture. "I don't think much of this play after all—wish we had gone somewhere else." "Alright, Marie," whispered the father. "Pinch the kid and we'll leave."

THE HURRY UP KIND

At the post office a little girl deposited a one-cent piece in front of the clerk, saying: "Oh, I have forgotten the name of the stamp-mechanism, but at any rate it's the kind that makes a letter hurry."

VETERANS OF FRANCE FAIL TO RATIFY JOINT USER PLAN

Turn Down Project of G. W. V. A., Who Are Leaving Own Premises

At a special meeting of the Veterans of France Association last night the proposal of the Great War Veterans Association that that organization be granted the use of some of the facilities of the Veterans of France building for the meetings of the G. W. V. A. was considered by the membership.

After a very determined discussion on all phases of the question it was finally decided that the G. W. V. A. should not be granted this privilege, and the membership refused to ratify the temporary agreement that had already been reached by executive members on a tentative basis. One of the reasons announced for the refusal to accept the suggestion was that the quarters of the Veterans of France would not be large enough to function for the G. W. V. A.

The G. W. V. A. Position. The current issue of The B. C. Veterans Weekly contains the following statement on the situation: "For upwards of a year the Victoria branch has been carrying a heavy burden, an expensive building has been maintained which has provided home comforts for any and every returned man, whether or not he became a member and contributed towards its upkeep. Thousands of returned men enjoyed the hospitality of the Victoria branch, but only a small percentage contributed towards the cost. In many cases the comrades were unable to pay the nominal fees owing to lack of employment, others preferred to get something for nothing, and make no attempt to help the paying members in their efforts to keep the premises open.

In March, 1920, the Victoria branch vacated its humble but comfortable quarters in Lower Fort Street, and took possession of the one-hundred-room Ritz Hotel. The need for such a building had been amply demonstrated by the Knights of Columbus, who operated it as one of their huts. When that organization closed the huts, the Victoria G. W. V. A. took over the Ritz Hotel as it stood, the furniture and fixtures being kindly loaned by the Knights of Columbus.

An agreement was entered into whereby the G. W. V. A. agreed to continue the policy of the K. of C. and keep an open door to all ex-service men, whether they belonged to the G. W. V. A. or not. Consequently many non-paying guests have prevented the accumulation of funds to meet unexpected difficulties.

When the Ritz Hotel was leased for a period of one year and ten months, it was expected that a revenue would be forthcoming from the canteen during that period. The Liquor Control Act forbids the sale of beer in clubs, and the Victoria branch has conformed to the provisions of the act, but in doing so,

DECIDE TO PASS CABARET BY-LAW City to Act at Last to Start Clean Up

It is compelled to give up its present quarters and seek something in keeping with its changed financial standing.

The long-heralded and oft-delayed "clean-up" of Victoria cabarets will start in real earnest before many weeks have passed, because the City Council has decided finally to pass the new Cabaret By-Law.

"We will bring the measure in without delay now," Mayor Porter announced this morning, following the conference on the cabaret question between the City Council and the City Police Commission yesterday afternoon. "We have delayed action on the By-Law so far on the advice of our solicitor and because we wanted to see how the liquor law would work out. It would seem now, however, that there is no necessity for further delay, so we shall proceed to pass the measure."

It is understood that the definite announcement of the Liquor Control Board that no beer will be sold in clubs has decided one of the most serious questions which the city has faced in its efforts to reform cabarets.

When the By-Law comes before the Council again, however, it is probable that the same difficulties which barred its progress before will crop up again. The greatest of these is the difficulty of defining the word "cabaret." So far the Mayor admitted to-day, no one has been able to supply a definition.

Police Commissioner Dr. Hall described to the aldermen yesterday afternoon what he considered the iniquitous and vicious conditions prevailing in Victoria cabarets, which he recently visited, and the Police Commissioner Joseph North joined in urging that girls under twenty-one years of age should not be allowed in cabarets unless accompanied by their parents or guardians; that cabarets should be closed at 1 a. m.; that heavy fines should be fixed for persons found guilty of taking liquor into cabarets, and that cabaret entertainers be prevented from mingling with patrons.

Dr. Hall gave figures to allege that a number of recent cases of venereal disease had originated in cabarets, and that cabaret entertainers should be closed at 1 a. m.; that heavy fines should be fixed for persons found guilty of taking liquor into cabarets, and that cabaret entertainers be prevented from mingling with patrons.

Aldermen Agreeable. In spite of the dispute which has been proceeding between the Commission and the Council, the aldermen appeared to share the Commissioner's ideas in general. Alderman Andros, however, thought that the commissioners were needlessly cautious about girls in cabarets. "The age limit of twenty-one, he thought, was a little high.

Consideration of the suggestions was promised.

Mr. Dixie Assisted Dominion Trust Liquidation.

J. W. Dixie, of New Westminster, is the new Departmental Solicitor under the Attorney-General. It was announced by Premier Oliver this afternoon, following the meeting of the Executive at which Mr. Dixie's appointment was confirmed. He will succeed W. D. Carter, K.C., who was recently promoted to the office of Deputy Attorney-General.

Mr. Dixie was formerly a partner of George Cowan, K.C., in Vancouver, and gained prominence in his profession for the use of the Provincial Government in the liquidation of the Dominion Trust Co. He will move to Victoria and take over his new office by July 1.

Thomas Archdale Pope, of Penticton, was to-day appointed magistrate of Penticton by the Executive.

TO PLACE TROPHY GUNS IMMEDIATELY

Four Guns For City and Two For Government

German trophy guns will be mounted at different parts of the city within ten days, City Engineer F. M. Preston announced this morning. One of the big guns will be mounted at the corner of Fort Street and Oak Bay Avenue, and another near the fountain on Douglas Street. Mr. Preston said. An anti-aircraft gun will be placed at the northern end of the Causeway on the western side of the street and a four-inch gun will be stationed at the other end of the Causeway. This will leave one big gun and one three-inch gun for the use of the Provincial Government which will place them wherever it sees fit. It is presumed that they will be mounted in some part of the Parliament Buildings grounds.

The concrete bases for these guns will be laid on Monday, Mr. Preston said. All the guns will be in place in about ten days, he thought.

Yesterday members of the City Council, led by Alderman Robert Dewar, complained over the delay in placing the guns but Mr. Preston explained to-day that it had been impossible to proceed with the work before. No money had been voted for the purpose, he explained, so that it was necessary to save sufficient funds out of other jobs. Besides, city workers who will do the work have been engaged up to the present in connection with other projects, he stated.

"B.C. WEEK" IDEA GOOD

But Government Does Not Think It Proper Subject For Official Proclamation.

The idea of the publicity organizations of Victoria and Vancouver to have a "B. C. Week" set aside during which business firms and individuals would be asked to write to friends and other persons all over the province and invite them to British Columbia, was declared to be good by the Provincial Government to-day at a meeting of the Executive.

The Government, however, decided that it should hesitate in making it a subject of an official Government proclamation.

OBITUARY RECORD

After a long illness of nearly two years' duration James Alexander Bruce, eldest son of the late Alexander Bruce, of "Rokeby," Prestwick, and "Shaw," near Ayr, Scotland, passed away at an early hour yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital. The late Mr. Bruce was in his eighty-first year, having been born July 2, 1840. He lived in Dublin, Ireland, for many years before he came to Canada in 1884. Since then he had made his home in Florida, Colorado, and other parts of the United States, finally returning to Canada in 1906 and living in Victoria most of the time until his death. He had been ill for the last two years, being nearly seven months in hospital. There survive four sisters, all living in Scotland, and two brothers, William Bruce of Gourock, Scotland, and Stuart Bruce, of Olive Street, Victoria. The funeral, which is to be private, will take place at one o'clock on Monday at 2 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. Dr. Campbell will officiate and interment will be made at Ross Bay cemetery.

The death occurred last Thursday evening at the Royal Jubilee Hospital of Mrs. Georgina Mitchell Richardson, dearly beloved wife of Mr. William Richardson, of 1323 Balmoral Road, aged 39 years. She was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and had been a resident of this city for the past ten years. She is survived by her husband and four children of this city, a father and mother, three sisters and two brothers in Scotland, also one sister, Mrs. W. Jefferies, of Saanich, and one brother, Mr. Charles Dunlop, of this city. The funeral will take place on Monday at 2 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Rev. Dr. Campbell will officiate and interment will be made at Ross Bay cemetery.

The death occurred yesterday morning at her home, 601 Pioneer Street, Esquimalt, of Mrs. Emma Elizabeth Woolcock, beloved wife of Joseph Woolcock, aged 52 years. She was born in Cornwall, England, and had been a resident of this city for the past five years. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, two sons, Frank and Joseph Woolcock, one daughter, Miss Maggie Woolcock, also one sister, Mrs. Jessie Brunsten, of this city, and one brother and one sister in England. The remains will repose at the Sands Funeral Chapel until Tuesday morning, when the casket will be removed to her late home where the funeral will take place at 1.45 o'clock. Fifteen minutes later services will be conducted at St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, by Rev. W. Baugh-Allen. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

BERRY CROP IS IN STRONG DEMAND

Fraser Valley Floods Factor in Market Maintenance

Considerable local comment is being made upon the comparative scarcity of locally-grown strawberries of shipping grade this year, the supply available to local consumers being no more than can be well absorbed from day to day. The absence of any glut, feared earlier in the year, is due to the great demand for berries from Saanich and Gordon Head existing in the Pacific coast districts, a demand in past years met to a considerable extent with berries from the lower Fraser Valley berry districts, but this year transferred to the island growers as a result of the disastrous floodings which have wiped out so great a proportion of the Fraser Valley strawberry crop.

Scarcity of the growers of straw-berries in the Fraser Valley for this year has been so waterlogged that it was hopeless to attempt to pick any fruit whatever, and many others who attempted to harvest a crop from lands not so drenched found their fruit too soft to ship. Hence the demand for Gordon Head and Saanich berries of shipping grade has fully equalled that experienced in past years, in spite of the far greater acreage now under crop in British Columbia.

War secrets and the things that went on in high places during the great struggle are featured in some of the newest books at the Library. "Secrets of the War," by G. Stuart, reveals some of the confidential war policies of the British Government a subject which is forming the theme of many new works. Admiral Jellicoe's book, "The Crisis of the Naval War" is another volume which describes many of the inner workings of the British Navy when it formed the only bulwark between Britain and German invasion. In view of the sensation caused by his recent speech on the Irish question, Admiral Jellicoe's book, "Victory at Sea," should be of particular interest to our readers.

That busiest of authors, H. G. Wells, has described his much-discussed visit to Moscow in "Russia in the Shadows," a copy of which has reached the Library. It will be recalled that Mr. Wells' opinions on Bolshevism and conditions in Russia kept England amused and interested for fully a week. His book, although based on a stay of only a few days in Russia is interesting even if one doesn't agree with him.

How the newspaper people of Belgium managed to continue the publication of newspapers in spite of the brutal oppression of their German masters during the occupation of their country is told in "Secret Press in Belgium" by J. Massart. As this work shows, the publishers of the secret newspapers, working under almost incredible hardships, displayed a bravery and resource unsurpassed perhaps in any phase of the war.

Investigations which were completed by Library officials this week would seem to show that Victoria's literary taste is considerably higher than that of most cities on this continent. It has been found that no historical book, however technical or dry character, has not found a large number of readers. In most libraries it is reckoned that large historical books, as their initial price is heavy, cost about nine or ten cents for each time they are read. The Library has a hundred times in the Victoria Library, however, the circulation cost is only four to five cents as the technical books are read more generally than in other places. Final preparations are being made at the Library for the course in children's reading to be held in connection with the teachers' Summer School. Lectures in this course will commence July 4. Scholastic of the year is planned to show teachers what to read as well as how to read and set forth in a pamphlet prepared by George Anderson, of the Seattle Public Library, who will deliver a number of lectures at the Summer School. This pamphlet runs, in part, as follows: "Scholastic of the year. What of the years before they have you ever stopped to think how much time we spend in planning what we shall put on and in our bodies and how little in planning what we shall put in their minds? They go to school, to be sure, but that is for only five hours a day for approximately 185 days in the year. What of the years before they begin to go to school, what of the hours and days each year in which they are not under instruction? Have we any deliberate plan to care for the mind's growth as we care for the body's? Some people will say at once, 'Oh yes, my children are fond of books.' They like to read. But if further inquiry is made as to what they like to read, the answer frequently is, 'I don't know, but I see them reading nearly every evening.' It is just as important that children shall read good books as it is that they shall learn to read at all. It would be hard to find anyone who would insist that it is unnecessary for children to learn to read. Yet reading in itself is not the end we seek, but only a means to that end. The goal of all education is the enrichment of the mind, and the joy of living. No one can ever have the fullness of these resources and that joy who has not had them from earliest childhood.

The best books for a child are the books that enlarge his world. A man or a woman in middle life or old age who loves poetry and great pictures and statues, who is familiar with Shakespeare, and has historic sense, imagination, a sense of humor, and a love of nature, that man or woman is full of resources and the joy of living. No one can ever have the fullness of these resources and that joy who has not had them from earliest childhood.

Accompanying is the programme of music at Beacon Hill Park to-morrow, at 3 o'clock by the G. W. V. A. Band, under Bandmaster Miller: March—"Viscount Nelson"; Zehle Dramatic overture—"Pathe"; Bizet "Danza"; "The Song of the Lark"; and him from obscurity. A dramatic and entrancing tone picture in music. The artistic manner in which the subjects are repeated in changing major and minor keys, frequent intervals, either above or below preceding part, reveals color like an ever changing sunset.

DUNCAN CONSOLIDATED PUBLIC SCHOOL

PRaises SYSTEM NOW IN OPERATION

Duncan Trustees Satisfied
With Consolidated Plan of Education

Duncan, June 25.—The Consolidated School System has been an unqualified success here, according to Trustee W. M. Dwyer, chairman of the board, in a statement to The Times. To the Duncan school there are now about 120 to 130 children being brought in by buses, six of which are engaged in conveying the pupils to the school daily during the term.

It has not been possible yet to cease operating all the small schools, in fact Mr. Dwyer thinks it would be unwise to force the idea to its full extent because the primary schools are in private care. It is also considered that the principle is not necessary for the High School pupils, many of whom are conveyed into Duncan in private cars. The plan has received the commendation of the Government inspectors and, owing to its novelty, has been examined by a number of leading educationalists.

While the scheme as it exists is limited to children from at least a two-mile radius of the school, and owing to the extensive area of the municipality of North Cowichan, the longer routes are quite a distance from the school, it is considered geographically feasible to accept children from south of the river. Here, however, steps in administrative policy, as the provincial authorities control the unorganized district, and have not yet agreed to deal in the same manner with three small schools, which it is claimed could be eliminated were a geographical and not an administrative radius chosen.

Altogether, however, the trustees are well pleased with the experiment and look to its expansion.

SCHOOL CLOSING EXERCISES HELD

Event at York Road School, Duncan

Duncan, June 25.—At the closing exercises and prize-giving at the York Road Primary School, with Trustee O. T. Speeches of congratulation were made by Mr. Smith and R. A. Thorpe.

The teacher was presented with a leather handbag and a fountain pen by Ernest Butler and Doris Hadden on behalf of the class.

After "God Save the King" the audience adjourned to the school yard, where a short sports programme was carried through with the help of Mr. Thorpe. Team A won from team B in a football match by 1 goal to 0, but team B retrieved by twice winning in the running and tug-of-war contests. The girls gave a display of skipping.

WONDERFUL WORK OF BIBLE SOCIETY

Bible Is Issued in Over 500 Languages

Some interesting figures are given in the one hundred and seventeenth annual report of the British and Foreign Bible Society, published recently. Ten new languages were added to the society's editions during the year, bringing the languages in which the Bible of portions is issued to 538. About 160 languages have been added since the twentieth-century began. The Gospel is now being translated into forty additional languages and dialects. Revisions are also being constantly made.

A total of 861,134 Bibles, 727,367 Testaments and 7,257,875 smaller portions were issued during the past year—8,655,781 in all. This was an increase for the year of 139,851. Nearly 700,000 books were sold in Japan and Korea, 1,725,000 in India and Ceylon, and 4,000,000, mainly Gospels, were sold in China. This last item was the subject of comment, as there has been civil war, brigandage and famine in China; but in spite of these events the sale of Gospels continued.

Large supplies were disposed of in the new European states, and the demand was stated to be still very strong. Russia had remained barred, but a veteran worker had kept a depot open in Petrograd, though his stock was very much depleted. The society had a printing press in Finland, where many thousands of the Russian New Testament were being printed.

FINE SOCIAL SERVICE WORK.

Windsor, Ont., June 25.—The parish of All Saints, Windsor, Ontario, of which Venerable Archdeacon Carlisle is the rector, has a fine record of practical social service. A deaconess is engaged in social service work. A girls' residence is maintained with accommodation for twelve young women of an industrial past, who are employed in the city. A "paid secretary-treasurer" whose duty it is to get in touch with young men. A women's social service club of about fifty young women, most of them married, raised and pay the salary of the deaconess and meet weekly to sew and discuss how they can help to meet the manifold social needs of an industrial past. And last, but by no means least, the rector is the unsalaried judge of the recently established juvenile court.

Summer School Dates.—The opening meeting of the Anglican Summer School to be held in St. George's, 1141 Broadway Avenue, next month will take place on Monday evening, July 11, at 7:45 p. m. The Bishop of Columbia, Right Rev. C. D. Schöffel, will be chairman, to introduce the visiting lecturers and extend a welcome to the boarding and day students. From Tuesday, July 12, to Friday, July 15, inclusive, lectures will be given between the hours of 9:15 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. each morning, and from 7:45 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. each evening. The afternoons will be free for recreation or conference. Those desiring to register for attendance at the lectures should apply at once to the secretary, A. R. Morris, 212 Hurdett Avenue, or registration forms can be obtained through any Anglican parish clergyman.
